3rd Annual St. James'
Bishop Terence Kelshaw
Lecture Series

Friday-Saturday
March 19-20, 2010

Presenter:

Lord Carey of Clifton
Archbishop of Canterbury 1991-2002

Lecture Topic
Christian Discipleship

George Carey was born in 1935 in the East End of London, the son of a hospital porter. He left school at 15 and began working at the London Electricity Board as an office boy, and also served with the Royal Air Force in Iraq during the fifties.

By the time he was twenty, he had decided he wanted to be ordained as a minister into the Church of England. After graduating from London College of Divinity (ALCD) and King's College London (BD. Hons) he served as a curate in Islington, London. During this time he went on to research the early origins of Christian ministry and earned both M.Th and Ph. Degrees. He then taught at two Colleges before becoming a parish priest at St.Nicholas' Durham. In 1982 he became Principal of Trinity Theological College in Bristol and, in 1987, Bishop of Bath and Wells. In 1991 he was invited to take up the post of 103rd Archbishop of Canterbury and served 70 million Anglicans around the world until his retirement in 2002.

In 2002 George Carey was made a life peer as 'Lord Carey of Clifton'. Lord Carey is Presentation Fellow of King's College London, Fellow of Christ's University College, Canterbury and Fellow of the Library of Congress. He is also the recipient of some 12 Honorary Doctorates and author of 14 books. These books include: Know the Truth - A Memoir, Canterbury Letters to the Future, Spiritual Journey - A Pilgrimage to Taizé with Young People, Sharing a Vision, I Believe, The Gate of Glory, and Encounter with Canterbury. For more information, please visit Lord Carey's website--<http://glcarey.co.uk>

Lord Carey's wife Eileen will be traveling with him. We look forward to welcoming them to St. James' and encourage you to attend this special occasion for a time of fellowship while learning more about our Anglican heritage and how we are called to be disciples of Our Lord and Saviour.
